

Thor Equities is a global leader in urban real estate development, leasing and management of commercial, residential, retail, hotel and mixed-use assets. Founded in 1986 by President & CEO Joseph J. Sitt, the company owns prime property in the United States, Europe, Canada and Latin America, with portfolio transactions and a development pipeline in excess of $15 billion and totaling more than 20 million square feet.

Mr. Sitt also serves as CEO of Thor Retail Advisors, a premier leasing agent and exclusive representative of global retailers in their search for prime locations; Chairman of Thor Urbana, which develops and acquires retail, office and mixed-use properties in Mexico City, Guadalajara, Puebla and other large Mexican cities; and Chairman and Managing Principal of Thor Urban Property Funds, an investment vehicle serving pension funds, investment banks, top-tier college endowments and foundations.

Harvard professor Michael Porter and the Initiative for a Competitive Inner City (ICIC) have honored Mr. Sitt for his commitment to fostering healthy competitive business conditions and new opportunities in inner city neighborhoods. He has served on the board of the Real Estate Roundtable in Washington, D.C., the Department of Real Estate at Baruch College, the Downtown Brooklyn Council economic development advocacy group, REBNY's Board of Governors, and as Chairman of the Brooklyn Fulton Street Business Improvement District.

Mr. Sitt is a member of the Partnership for New York City, and serves on the board of the Bedford Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation. He has spent much of his career focusing on youth development and education, serving on the Boards of Brooklyn's Flatbush High School and TAB High School, leading a teen program and acting as an ongoing mentor and guidance counselor to Brooklyn youth.
